Players: The 10 Planets

Part One: The Lead Roles

The Sun

The Sun is the center of our solar system. It generously shares its radiance with the other planets. In Astrology, the Sun is the heart of the chart. It points to ways that your relationship needs to confidently shine. Keep the fires of your Sun burning brightly and proudly together. Harmony will follow. A spirit of cooperation will fill your minds. The Sun stands for ego needs, will power and creative vitality.

Forget your own Sun signs for the moment, Steven and George.

Your shared Sun sign could be different than your individual Sun signs. Remember that we are talking about your combined Sun. It is the fusion of your two creative energies.

Sun in Pisces

A Sign is a psychological process through which a planet operates. The two of you are solarized through the sign Pisces, giving your relationship a large dose of idealism. The keyword phrase for Pisces in traditional astrology is "I believe." There can be unlimited faith in one another. You may intuitively understand each other.

There can be an admiration shown for each other's beliefs. Sharing your highest ideals deepens your closeness. Creativity may leap out at you in this relationship! A shared love for aesthetics and nature scenes is likely. Supporting each other's dreams can build trust. Escape from the stresses of everyday life could be of importance to each of you.

There may be few walls separating your subconscious minds. Learn to enjoy each other's self-discoveries. A shared belief in intuitive forces can make both of you great watcher's of life. There is the possibility each of you feels you have found a special ally. Your meeting one another may have seemed magical or destined.

One or both of you may know certain events before they occur. Expressing your compassion and empathy teaches you to appreciate each other.

Your paths may often dance together. There will be times when you will dance alone. Whether doing a solo performance, or operating as a duet, the emotional distance that separates you is probably not far.

Do not forget to talk to each other! Don't assume your partner can read your mind or mood. There can be false assumptions about each other. Clear communication blended with intuition can maintain balance.

Divine discontent may drive you to find excessive flaws in one another. Realize there are no perfect people. It is okay to question actions that hurt you. Keep criticism within reason. Avoid standards for yourself and each other that are impossible to reach.

You need not tip toe around one another. Be more direct than too passive in your communication. It will ensure putting your mutual dreams into motion. Talking gives each of you more of a sense of being grounded and focused. Dependency needs to be balanced. Rejoice in the emotional and physical well being promoted by realistic expectations of each other. Denying issues or problems does not make them magically disappear. See your partner as a real person rather than an idealized version. Mixing some reality with idealism brings harmony. Learn to share your highest values. Allowing each other to pursue individual paths makes being together that much more fulfilling.

Your creative vitalities inspire a search for unity and peace. Working productively as a team gives you the confidence to face one challenge after another. You will not always understand your partner's world. Enjoy the happiness in watching each other grow. Celebrate those special shared milestones.

Sun in the Tenth House

A determination for success is accentuated. You can instill ambition and great momentum in each other! It is possible to happily share ownership in a business or other investments. You can support each other's hope to receive recognition for your abilities. You influence one another to achieve great things in life.

Your life in the public sector may be demanding and at the same time offer growth. You can fill the call to a variety of roles, whether it is in the form of parent, job, civic leader, etc. Sharing responsibility in your relationship gives you a sense of confirmation about each other. Making time for one another creates closeness.

Friends and strangers will likely see you as people that know what they want in life. Your lives are based on a clear commitment. Your public and private lives can be balanced with good management. Remember to be fair to each other when life gets stressful or demanding.

A lack of adaptability can cause distance. Too much competition within the partnership can create instability. Respect for each other's leadership ability is a stabilizing factor. Take turns being the boss.

You are a serious pair when it comes to making your ideas become a reality. You don't like people wasting your time. Discipline is something you value.

The temptation to compulsively work on individual challenges can distract you from your relationship. Give one another the attention and emotional support needed. If you do, you will have a friend for life.

The Moon

Lofty dreams and aspirations have been inspired through gazing at the Moon. The Moon's sign and house position represent the emotional closeness you may share with each other. Establishing a sense of security and a home are other lunar sides of life. The Moon symbolizes the imagination you share from your inner landscapes.

Moon in Sagittarius

With your relationship lunerized through the sign Sagittarius, you have gypsy and travel instincts in a big way. The two of you can share a common life philosophy. There is no end to the knowledge you can explore together. Life may be perceived as a great cosmic teacher.

An inspired generosity is possible. A belief in luck gives you the edge on being optimists. Your partnership reflects a casual and honest way of communicating. Friends and strangers are attracted to your positive energies.

Home makes for a fine launching pad for your creative self-expression. A spirit of learning and eclectic excitement is a prerequisite for your place of residence. You desire life to have an element of unpredictability. Staying in hot pursuit of a shared vision keeps life interesting. You both have no use for boredom--keep it at a safe distance. A lively social life allows you to flex those affable personalities.

Be careful in not paying enough attention to the more subtle needs of each other. Losing sight of details will occur at times. Take the time to get back on the same page. A refusal to face problems can cause frustration. Look an issue straight in the eye and it is less likely to come between you.

Let your shared imaginations guide you to think and act with clear purpose on the mental and physical planes. Sharing what is in your hearts and minds can be the key to success.

Moon in the Seventh House

Your life together revolves heavily around your social interactions. People want to hang out with you. It's your way of making people feel they count that draws them to you. It would not take you very long to see that this partnership leads you into a wide variety of associations. You bring out the extrovert in one another with little effort. There is a special delight in making your partner happy.

Let your intuition guide you to be a mirror of clarity for one another. You can perceive each other to be great advocates for your individual and shared dreams.

The Ascendant

We are taking a short intermission from the planets to introduce you to an additional key part of your relationship. The Ascendant or Rising Sign, is the sign that starts the 1st house of the chart. The Ascendant is one of the twelve signs, with a special role, serving as an ambassador. It acts as a persona or mask for an individual or a relationship. The Ascendant is the personality through which we interact with the world.

The Ascendant is the way we appear to others. It is their first impressions of us. You meet someone and he or she seems to be confident, shy, talkative, cheerful, etc. The same can be said for a partnership. The two people might seem theatrical, dreamy, or businesslike.

Ascendant in Gemini

People likely see the two of you as talkative and witty. You may seem educated and excel in communication, able to draw on the appropriate facts as quickly as needed. You move briskly with a joy in your faces when getting to move in multiple directions. Boredom is not a welcomed sight. Reading and learning stimulate your eager minds. Thinking in terms of options is a way of life for you two. Without them, life is missing an important ingredient. The formula for happiness must contain exhilarating experiences.

The Part of Fortune

Your Sun, Moon and Ascendant can be combined or blended into a cosmic alchemy, known as the Part of Fortune. This is not a planet, but rather a reference point in the chart. The Arabian astrologers of the Middle Ages are given credit for its discovery. The Part of Fortune is said to show where we can expect to find good fortune and even luck. Do we really need to take a look at something from the long ago past, if it will serve as nothing more than a relic to hang on the wall? A translation of this ancient symbol into modern terms makes this symbol worth investigating. Why? Because it can give clues to special paths that lead to harmony and a spirit of feeling united.

Think of the Part of Fortune as a potential corridor leading to Opportunity. It is a way to read the pulse rate of the partnership, indicating ways to reach a shared sense of fulfillment.

Part of Fortune in Pisces

The ideals you share inspire you to walk with a great sense of unity. Your beliefs can influence others to take a good look at their own. It is the unspoken language between you that others might envy. You often appear to move together with little conflict, whether this is true or not. It could be your love of mysticism or the mystique surrounding you that is intriguing. Your intuitive connection will often find you thinking the same thoughts. The intuition and imagination you awaken in one another ignites your creative powers.

Part of Fortune in the Tenth House

The successes you witness are the link to your happiness. You can't help but be doers, even when your minds are resisting. You recognize the ambitious side of one another. It is when you both choose those roles that elevate your self-confidence that a great fulfillment showers you. Luck and good fortune follow the commitment you are willing to make to your plans. Make a solid statement about what you want from life. Your determination will see it through. Be flexible, as this makes the journey more enriching and enjoyable.

Part Two: The Supporting Cast

Mercury

Are you curious about the way the two of you communicate? In this section are Mercury's sign and house placements, showing some of your favorite communication tendencies. Mercury is referred to as the winged messenger in mythology, a networker for the gods. This very mental heavenly body represents an important link between your minds. Express support for one another's goals and you make good friends. There will likely not be as much feeling in your conversations as breezy insights. The more you listen, the greater is your closeness.

Letting each other think as an individual does wonders for your working together.

Find the ways to walk together without stepping on each other's toes. Learn to disagree without discounting your partner's insights. You don't always want your partner to know your next move. This is your way of keeping life a magical journey featuring new discoveries about each other.

Be patient before impulsively taking a chance on an idea that is a true long shot. You both can exude feistiness in fighting for your principles.

The two of you may view comfort as being on the move in new directions. You will be resting more out of fatigue than by choice. Your joint consciousness is motivated by the possibility of stimulating opportunities. Your closest acquaintances likely agree with your highest principles. Honest people can win your hearts.

Saturn

Astronomers say that if Saturn fell from the sky it is light enough to float on an ocean. Some people dread hearing about where Saturn is in their chart more than they do going to the dentist! The fortune tellers of old always painted this planet with "heavy" interpretations. They presented this planet as being a god of doom and gloom. In modern astrology, this motif denotes endurance and ambition. In mythology, Saturn was Chronos, the god of time, reflecting the wisdom that can be learned from past experiences. You could say Saturn is a "Cosmic Chiropractor", showing adjustments needing to be made along life's way. There can be frustration in repeating the same mistakes. Saturn's sign and house themes are associated with Commitment and Reality-Testing. The two of you may find clues here about how to define your relationship roles. Career drive is a Saturn hallmark. Saturn shadows are fear, rigidity and a need to be compulsively controlling. There is no longevity without partners dealing with the symbolism of this particular celestial wanderer. With a lot of practice and patience the two of you can get good in making this side of your relationship flow--honest! Saturn can become more a god of Success!

Saturn in Cancer

So you don't always show your ambitious sides openly. Each of you usually knows what the other wants to be in life, even if you don't share this with the rest of us. Be fair in leaning on your partner. You are a strong duo when you decide to put a strategy into motion. Your perseverance may wane at times, but somehow you finish what you start, more often than not.

Remembering important meetings or events is a must. Making time just for the two of you preserves your closeness. Treat with reverence what each other values as special and you will have a friend you can count on in any season.

Don't run away from your differences. It will only mean it will take longer to talk through emotionally hot issues. Learn to listen and talk with each other. It makes you that much more fond of your partner!

Each of you needs to feel like a valuable asset.

Uranus

Try to visualize a maverick planet orbiting on its side, whereas the other planets sit straight up and down. Uranus! This planet was discovered in the eighteenth century, sandwiched in between the American and French Revolutions. Is it any great wonder that this planet's sign and house occupations show our individuality and innovative ideas? Experimentation. Inventiveness. These are two more themes of this exciting and trend-setting entity. What is the down side to this rebel? A tendency in exhibiting a sarcastic tongue in your everyday communication. Launching sudden irresponsible actions will not make you feel like friends. Uranus can be the source of enjoying the refreshing insights you bring to your partnership. Treat each other as equals and you are likely responding to a positive tendency embedded in this planet's symbolism.

Uranus in Gemini

You are free thinkers. This probably comes as no surprise. Ideas travel back and forth as fast as a falling star dances through the night sky. Your mental worlds will seem quite far apart occasionally. Why? Because you enjoy being entertained by your own unique thought galaxies. Don't let this disturb you. There will be plenty of chances to form alliances. Autonomy of the mind must be honored in your relationship.

Do you enjoy spontaneous decisions? Then you may be with the right person. Figuring out mental puzzles together is exhilarating. Watch Jeopardy or the Wheel of Fortune together. The two of you likely value education. It could be non-traditional learning that interests you the most.

Your friends are apt to walk their talk from diverse backgrounds. You only ask that people don't bore you with outdated information. You enjoy individuals possessing minds that can move as fast as the feet of New York City pedestrians--that's fast!

What can go wrong here in this mentally chic side of your relationship? Your intellects can smother your emotions. There is nothing wrong in stepping back to gain objectivity. If you want to receive support, you need to show some degree of emotion. Do you want to know something else to look out for? You can disrupt your partner's concentration. Learn early on to use your radar to locate the other's sacred air spaces. It will help avoid collisions that create much anxiety. You need to cultivate airborne ideas, rather than traveling on highways of predictable routines.

Uranus in the Twelfth House

You share a vivid imagination. People might accuse both of you of being idealists in search of a cause. There are instances when you will be surprised to be feeling and thinking the same thing. Your subconscious natures are fused together in a way that makes for interesting discussions. Supernatural or intuitive forces may be part of your common belief system. You don't like to see life as limiting. You will need to use common sense in pursuing your goals. A plan may be needed, rather than relying solely on living in the moment.

A mutual appreciation for beauty could manifest in a joint creative exploration. Aesthetic talents can be a unique form of self-expression. Tastes in entertainment stimulate your conversations. You will need to accept your partner's spiritual or religious affiliations, if different from your own.

Occasionally, emotions can interfere with objectivity. You may need to pull back momentarily from touchy subjects to talk about them. It's not necessary to agree on everything. It's more important to feel you can speak your mind. This will light the way to a sense of unity. Faith in each other spurs you onto greater accomplishments. Trust your own unique insights. When you do, it adds richness to your relationship.

Neptune

There is a planet that adds a mystical tone to our lives. Neptune defies being labeled as part of the physical world. It is our spiritual awareness on one hand and desire to escape from earthly reality on the other. Both are possible!

In mythology, Neptune was Poseidon, god of the oceans. This water god represents feelings and emotions that you could share. Do the two of you feel any common ground when it comes to your highest beliefs? If you do, it might be associated with this planet's symbolism.

Faith is a Neptune theme. Neptune's sign and house will point to the ideals and causes you share. Your intuitive insights into one another can also be revealed here. Shadows of Neptune are denial and guilt. Keep these tendencies in check. It will ensure greater clarity and closeness. If you don't, it can feel like you are eating chicken broth with a fork.

Aesthetic interests are another part of Neptune's world. Your shared interests in art and music can come through loud and clear.

Neptune in Libra

You see a little of yourself when you look into your partner's eyes. It may seem as though you were destined to meet. Friction between you is unsettling--even painful. You can each feel as though you have found the ideal companion. It is harder to find a better lover or friend. You may even measure other people against your partner's qualities. Try to be fair in evaluating others. Maintaining your friendships and professional associations can be of benefit to your relationship. The two of you possess shared social skills that are above average.

Escape through your love of music and art is predictable. Your passion for beauty can be revealed in your clothing, jewelry and possessions. You can have a mutual appreciation for nature. Indecision might be aggravating. Being able to see the potential for opposing viewpoints to be equally correct doesn't make this easier. What is the way out? Compromise! Create as many win-win situations as possible. People may envy the apparent unity in your relationship. Those closest to you will want to become part of your lives.

Neptune in the Fourth House

You can tune into each other's moods quickly. Emotional energies are intensified through interacting with your partner. You bring out a desire to get comfortable with closeness in this relationship. Separate space once in a while might be needed to clarify your feelings. You can't always know how to make each other happy. A disappointment now and then is to be expected.

You can offer a shoulder to lean or cry on. Your faith in one another can inspire you to leave comfort zones in search of more challenging territory.

Your intuitive energies are forceful. They could even lead you to the right location to reside. Your home needs to be a package filled with security and comfort. Tranquility is a heartfelt requirement. Neither of you is that fond of disruptive people or unsettling experiences knocking on your door. Retreats into nature or to relaxing places bring out creativity.

When you first met, you could have sensed someone looking for the parts to complete a similar puzzle. It is hard to really hide your vulnerable selves from one another. You are at your best when communicating your genuine concerns. Listen without reacting. It takes plenty of practice. Patience. More practice. In a perfect world, you would always be able to shield each other from pain and sorrow. In the real world, you can move together with self-assured footsteps in establishing solid beliefs.

Pluto

Last, but not least, is a planet of mystery and intrigue, Pluto. You may get a message or two in this section about your shared psychological intensity. Pluto's sign and house point to our drives for power, passion and financial gain. A desire to get to know each other on the deepest of levels is a Pluto theme. We must let go of a part of ourselves to be in a relationship. This scares some people, and seems like a fair deal to others. What we cannot face as individuals sometimes will be brought to the surface in our interactions with a partner. Pluto's shadows center around jealousy and possessiveness. This planet teaches us that letting go and trusting one another are rewarding paths. Facing the tests of Pluto together is the breakfast of champions.

Pluto in Leo

You will probably learn more about each other when acting out your lives than through talk alone. Words without actions might seem cheap to one or both of you. A show-me-you-mean-it motto pulsates vivaciously in your hearts.

Each of you is dynamically aware of when you are getting support and when you being ignored. There is little tolerance for the latter. You are possessive of each other's need for approval. Give your best attention whenever possible as it brings trust.

You will need to forgive one another when your egos get rubbed the wrong way. There is heat in some of your verbal exchanges. In other words, you may get on each other's case at times. You have a tendency to pull out your partner's deepest feelings. You are not a shy couple in the area of self-expression.

Money is a subject that awakens strong opinions. You both want to make use of green energy from your own vantage point. Allow each other to feel free to make purchases that benefit their own goals. It will make you both that much more cooperative on the joint ventures. You can enhance mutual wealth in material and happiness terms. Make each other feel important. Your investment of time and trust can reap great rewards.

Pluto in the Third House

You impact each other's minds to think more deeply than most. Easy answers don't usually satisfy your penetrating curiosity. Knowing why things happen may be just as important to you two as the event itself. An avid interest in the latest breaking news can be shown. There isn't much that gets past either of you in your daily lives. Your perceptions can cast a net that collects the relevant facts and throws out the frivolous. It is assumptions about each other that can get you into trouble. Check things out with your partner before taking immediate action. Your ideas might be on the same wavelength, but with a few twists.

People can enjoy your in-depth knowledge. This isn't information based on theory alone. You both either carefully research your information or have already put it to a test. Enhancing each other's learning is a bonus of being together. Don't put each other through a lie detector test. If you are truthful more than you are not, this won't be necessary anyway. It isn't easy to fool one another for very long. You may find yourselves exposing the darkness in those who lie to themselves.

Beware of compulsive worry. Leaving a few stones unturned is okay. You don't always need to investigate a situation down to its bare bones. Unleash this forceful mental energy you have in common on worthwhile projects. You are thorough problem-solvers--aren't you?

Midheaven

Just as the Ascendant was described as a sign serving a special purpose, there is a sign referred to as the Midheaven, with a special mission of its own. This is the sign at the beginning of the 10th house of a chart. A palm reader can interpret the career line embedded in your hand. Think of the Midheaven or 10th house sign as a type of career line in your chart. How you two conduct business in the world and your work interests are shown here.

Midheaven in Aquarius

Unique roles are a distinct possibility in this relationship. You can be inventive types with a desire to be in cutting-edge professions. New technologies call to you on a regular basis to discover them. Neither of you cares to have someone looking over your shoulder in work environments. You are goal-oriented when it comes to serious ambitions. You both require jobs or roles that you can't outgrow too quickly. You work better together when you treat your partner as an equal. Boredom with slow moving minds or institutions is likely. Your plans can shock others out of their comfort zones. Groups may find you a refreshing twosome.

Part Three: Planetary Aspects

It's time now to mention another technical side of your report. (If you don't like technical explanations, skip right to the Aspect Interpretations). You have already been introduced to the ten planets. Certain planetary pairs in your chart have a special relationship to one another due to particular angular distances separating them, known as aspects. You could almost say the two planets in an aspect travel and interact together along the same circuit. The following aspect interpretations or descriptions will be listed under five types. Two are known as the soft aspects: the sextile (60 degrees) and trine (120 degrees). These two aspects generally point to more gentle themes found in your relationship. They indicate a lower voltage of electricity and produce less friction. The planets involved in a trine or sextile are more likely areas where you flow together without much effort.

The more hard or intense aspects are the conjunction (0 degrees), square (90 degrees) and opposition (180 degrees). They require our understanding and will point to key ways the two of you must communicate and negotiate. Planets that are part of an intense aspect will show how you energize one another. These higher voltage aspects don't mean you want to avoid them, but more so to develop the true understanding to use this energy constructively. "Soft" does not mean good and "intense" does not imply bad. It is often the more intense aspects that deepen the bond of a partnership. The interpretation of any planetary aspect depends greatly on the symbolism of the two planets forming an aspect.

It might be helpful to keep some keywords in mind for the aspects. The sextile is a promise of Excitement and Eagerness. The planets in this aspect give clues how your energies support one another. The trine is a special Harmony shown by two planets. There is often positive regard for one another that comes spontaneously. We expect good things to be delivered in the trine.

The conjunction is where two planets are joined at the hip. There is a Fusion or powerful blending of these two energies. The square can reveal where you will encounter Friction in your relationship. Pay special attention to these aspects, as they are opportunities for growth as much as discord. The opposition requires a Balancing act. It is similar to a seesaw. Each of you may find yourselves taking turns in acting out one planet or the other.

It might be helpful to refer to Parts One and Two to refresh your memory about the meaning of the Planets, Ascendant and Midheaven, as you read the aspects that follow. Remember that it is usually the more intense aspects that stretch us the most. The more positively you use these challenging planetary combinations the greater will be your understanding of each other.

Note that a planet might be involved in several different aspects. In other words, the planet is interfacing its energies with numerous other planets (or even with the Ascendant or Midheaven). A "heavily aspected planet" plays a key role in your relating to each other.

Do you sometimes wonder if it was fate or some other mysterious set of events that introduced the two of you? What attracted you the most to each other? Maybe it was the way you could talk, a business interest or a shared sense of values. There is a multitude of possibilities you could name. The Nodes of the Moon are not planets. They are a celestial polarity that offers clues to your connection on the soul level. Think of it as your own "psychic friends network." If this sounds too mystical or corny, just think of the Nodes as a shared frequency level in your partnership. It doesn't mean you get psychic flashes about each other. Much of this link between your minds is probably on a subconscious level. The Nodes usually play an active part in our closest relationships. The longer we are in a relationship with a particular person, the more these two energies come into our conscious awareness.

Sharing your opinions and feelings openly makes you closer allies. A tenacious work spirit can accomplish much together. When you support one another's most serious ambitions a tighter bond develops. Making equal effort to put a plan into action deepens your commitment. Encouraging your partner to realize their highest potential is a wise thing to do.
