Your Planetary Day

While the calendar we use in the West dates from the 1500s, the seven days of the week have repeated without interruption for over two millennia. From ancient times, each day of the week has been associated with the Sun, Moon or one of the five visible planets. The weekday on which you were born shows where you stand in this ancient seven-fold cycle, and gives you a special link with the quality of its planetary ruler.

You were born on a Sunday.

Sunday is named for the Sun, which is often associated with the hero who sets out on a quest and earns honor and glory. Like the Sun, the solar person stands at the center, radiating energy to those nearby. Of the seven directions of space, the Sun's direction is upward, toward the highest point in the sky. The Sun rules consciousness and illumination, the day-side of life. In the Kabbalah, the Sun is associated with Michael, angel of light. Pride is the weakness of the solar personality; and devotion to the heroic quest its special strength.

In Romance languages, the name for Sunday means “day of the lord,” and indeed the Sun also signifies the god who dies and is reborn, as the Sun is each day. As the unmoving center of the solar system, the Sun is the still point where we encounter the eternal. For the Christians, its day became the Sabbath, the day of rest. “The child that is born on the Sabbath Day / Is brave and bonny and good and gay.”

About Personal Numerology

The report that follows explores the numerological meaning of your birth date and the full name that was given to you at birth. Its aim is to make you more aware of the tendencies and patterns in your life, so that you can live more consciously, and more fully become the person you were meant to be.

As you read the following pages, remember that they describe pure types for each number. No one, of course, exhibits these character traits in their pure form. Instead, each of us is multi-dimensional, made up of many energy imperatives vying for expression. Some energies harmonize easily, while others are at cross-purposes, causing us to live with contradictions and inner conflicts. Our task is to honor all parts of ourselves and work at bringing our disparate selves into some kind of balance and cooperation. By making us more aware of our inner tendencies, numerology can help us to do this all-important work on ourselves.

In our families and other groups of which we are a part, some behaviors are encouraged and others are discouraged. If who we are wasn't acceptable, we probably contorted ourselves to be what others wanted us to be. If so, we may have become what is called a “turn-type.”

For example, we may negatively manifest a number by expressing its opposite, as when the independent number 1 type becomes extremely dependent. Alternatively, the energy is out of balance and expressed extremely, as when the daring number 1 type becomes foolhardy. Or the energy is not developed enough, so that the number 1 is cowardly instead of courageous.

Because we feel that a certain trait is unacceptable and unworthy of us according to the biases of our family, superiors or peers, we may not be able to relate to it in ourselves. We may then spend many years discovering who we really are apart from other people's expectations of us.

Studies such as numerology can help us find our way out of this maze, orienting us toward our true being and the highest manifestation of what we are. They can give us an objective picture of our strengths and weaknesses, show us our place in the larger scheme of things, and help us find the hidden gold in our characters, which we may not have even suspected that we had.

How Numerology Works. Through the use of ancient principles, numerology can derive a world of meaning from your birthdate and birth name. In the course of your life other numbers may become important for you, and you will probably acquire other names, but, like your astrological birth chart, the numerological vibrations at the very beginning of your life set the tone for all that follows.

To find the meaning inherent in your day, month and year of birth, numerologists add the digits in various ways. Most totals turn out to be more than one digit. They therefore reduce them to a single digit by adding the digits together. Whenever a total turns out to be a master number like 11 or 22, however, it is left as-is. These doubled numbers have a special significance, and are given special interpretations.

To find the numerological meaning of your name, numerology assigns a number to each letter of the alphabet. In the Pythagorean system used in this report, A = 1, B = 2, and so on through the first nine letters, and then we repeat the cycle through the rest of the alphabet. We then total the numbers corresponding to the vowels, the numbers corresponding to the consonants, and the numbers corresponding to all the letters to determine specific things about your character.

Each digit from 1 to 9 represents a specific stage in a cycle and has its own set of associations. In general, the odd numbers are considered introverted, in the sense of being primarily focused on inner life. The even numbers tend toward extroversion: that is, being primarily focused on outer activities. The numbers 1, 6, and 22, however, are considered dual in nature.

This said, let us now look first at your basic character and the major themes in your life.

Your Life Path

The total of the day, month and year of your birth is called by numerologists the Life Path, Life Lesson, Birth Path, Birth Force or, sometimes, the Destiny number. This number is chosen by nature rather than by you or your parents, and it reflects the season and historical era of your birth. As its names suggest, it shows your mission in life, your life work and what the universe intends for you. It shows the opportunities you must seize in order to make the most of your potential. Following the life path that has been given to you will enable you to avoid continual discord and frustration, and to unfold in the way that is best for your nature. When you find your true place in the world, you will feel at home.

Your birthdate total is 3.

Your Life Path of 3 means that that your destiny is involved with the development of social graces and good communication skills. You have a wonderful ability to inspire and amuse people. It is through those you favorably impress that your opportunities in life will come. Be creative, be artistic, and learn to use words to your advantage. You have an appealing charm and a real charisma. Versatility is vital to your success, but you must pace yourself. Learn not to scatter your energy.

What Motivates You in Life

We now move on to the name that you were given at birth. We first look at the total of the vowels in your full birth name, because this shows the emotional force that drives all that you do. This has its origin in your illusions and fantasies, the world you create for yourself in daydreams. Given enough energy, your fantasies become reality, because you tend to become who you think you are.

Having the Impression number 3, you dream of being a very popular person: magnetically attractive, and even a sex symbol. Since you are conscious of the image you project, only the latest and best in fashion will do. You may dream of the jet-set life or another glamorous lifestyle in which you are the star.

The Power You Can Achieve in Maturity

The total of the day, month and year of your birth and your full name at birth is known variously as the Power, Maturity, Reality, Real Self, Final Opportunity, Destiny or Goal Power number. A summation of both your name and your birthdate, this number shows how the two principal streams of energy converge to fulfill the purposes of your true self. The Power number is of great significance because it gives a clue as to what your ultimate life purpose might be.

This vibration usually becomes manifest only in the later part of your life. In the first half of life it tends to exist only as a potential. In these earlier years you live through many experiences that temper and define your character and aptitudes. Not until the age of 35 or 40 do most people live through enough life events to find their life purpose and develop it to the point where it becomes their main focus and direction. It is then that fulfillment comes. But this is usually achieved only after many false starts, and years of struggling to gain self-knowledge.

Finding your right place in life is gratifying. If you have not pushed through to this achievement, you can be dissatisfied and unhappy. You may feel at loose ends, without direction, rudderless and ill at ease. But if you have lived your life in accord with the purpose that was meant to be fulfilled in this life, you will find contentment and peace of mind.

What follows is the mature expression of your Power number. Mature development is not about living out someone else's idea of what you should be. It has more to do with honoring your own way of being in the world and moving from your own center. It is about trusting the process of unfoldment that exists within each of us and making this your guiding principle.

The total of your name and birthdate is 9.

A Power number of 9 signifies the humanitarian and universalist who knows that we are all brothers and sisters living on one earth. Nine is the archetype of the Reformer who has a broad vision that encompasses everyone, everywhere. Wishing to improve the lot of humankind and of the world, nines serve with willingness and compassion. Possessors of deep and powerful emotions, they work for causes with great energy and enthusiasm because of their vision of what the future can be. They weed the garden of the world in order to prepare the ground for the new growth that they envision. Nines have great personal magnetism through which they are able to influence people. Inspired and inspiring, they teach, counsel and heal. Uncomfortable living a personal life, they are at their best living their lives for the greater good.

Tarot Key 9: The Hermit

To gain further insights about your Power number, it can help to look at the Tarot trump that corresponds to it. In your case, this is the Hermit. In his pilgrimage through a dark landscape, the Hermit holds forth a lantern, searching for the truth. He has traveled far, and on his way he has incorporated into his being all facets of life. He has learned compassion and forgiveness. He now seeks only perfection, which he will not find around him. Instead, he will be led within, to a new level of awareness and a new beginning. The hermit is alone, with attention turned inward, but in his search he illuminates the darkness for others as well as himself.

Your Karmic Lessons

Karma numbers are digits that are completely missing in the letters of your name as given at birth. Most people have one or more Karma numbers. These missing digits serve as a guide to the areas of your life and personality that may be lacking. Such areas will benefit from special attention. If you ignore these blind spots, life can have a painful way of making you notice them. This, however, can eventually spur you forward on the path to wisdom. When you develop yourself in these areas, you will feel much more whole and complete.

The number 2 is missing in your name.

With a Karma number of 2, you may lack patience and tend to be overly sensitive. You may have experiences where you are forced to learn to get along better with others.

Your Subconscious Response

Your Subconscious Response is related to how many Karma numbers you have. It shows the way you tend to react in emergencies, when you have no time to consult your intellect.

Your Subconscious Response number is 8.

When the going gets rough, you generally take charge of the situation in a calm and businesslike manner. You keep in control with a practical plan of action that is both well- organized and expedient.

Your Youth, Maturity and Later Years

So far, we've discussed the number vibrations that stay with you throughout your life. Now we move on to the three major periods of your life as shown by your Life Cycle numbers. These are derived from reducing the digits in your month, day and year of birth. The sum of the month digits describes the first period; the day, the second period; and the year, the third period.

Your First Life Cycle starts at birth and lasts until age 25.
Its number is 1.

This can be a difficult first cycle, because independence is usually not very compatible with youth. When you insist upon doing things your way, you may encounter great conflicts of will with those in charge. Alternatively, at a time of life when one is naturally dependent, circumstances may force you to stand on your own, to follow your own path and not depend on others. You may be given too much freedom for you to handle at this early age. Your task is to develop your own individuality so that you can stand on your own feet gracefully.

During the First Life Cycle, your Life Path number and your First Minor Challenge number are also especially important influences.

Your Second Life Cycle starts at age 25 and lasts until age 61.
Its number is 8.

During your middle period you will be drawn to accumulating wealth and power, so this is an excellent cycle for business success. More than at other times, you have the ability to influence your environment in an efficient and result-oriented way. Your success is assured if you devise a plan and manage your life and finances well.

During this Life Cycle or the next, your Power number generally begins to manifest.

Your Third Life Cycle starts at age 61 and lasts until death.
Its number is 3.

You can look forward to an enjoyable last cycle, filled with friendship, socializing, and a renewed pleasure in life. This is a wonderful time for developing artistic talents. Now you can creatively use your life experiences to help others develop the same "joie de vivre" that you are blessed with now.

Major Decision or Turning Points in Your Life

Your Turning Points or Pinnacles are also derived from your full birthdate. Each of them defines a period in your life and the special issues that you will face during that period. As their name suggests, Turning Points show points of choice where you need to make decisions. Besides showing the issues at stake, the Turning Point number indicates the choice that will be best for you. Turning Points are like tests that you must pass before proceeding forward. The happiness that you feel in a given Turning Point period depends on the choices you've made and the skills you've developed when faced with the previous Turning Point.

Your First Turning Point starts at birth and lasts until age 34.

Its number is 9.

This youthful Turning Point may face you with change or loss at an early age. For a young person it may be especially difficult to deal with the intense emotions involved, and to love and give even though there may be no return. Nevertheless, during a 9 vibration this is where happiness lies. The more you rise to this challenge, the more beautiful life will seem to you. If you work for the good of others, you may be able to achieve money and success quite early in life.

Your Second Turning Point starts at age 35 and lasts until age 44.

Its number is 11/2.

In the next nine years of your life you will be given innovative ideas and possibly spiritual insights, and you will have an unusual opportunity for fame. Your task is to direct these gifts for the benefit of others.

Your Third Turning Point starts at age 45 and lasts until age 54.

Its number is 2.

This 2 vibration in the prime of your life enables you to work out your destiny through partnership in either marriage or business. Your inclination may be to give way to your partner's needs and demands, but this is not the way to master this vibration. The real lesson of a partnership is to find a balance between equals. This means not just learning how to love, but also how to fight, or some gentler way getting your own needs met as well as those of your partner.

Your Fourth Turning Point starts at age 55 and lasts until death.

Its number is 4.

In the last period of your life, a 4 vibration calls you make practical choices, and you will get a good feeling from putting your affairs in order. You may need to live on a tight budget, but if you approach it with the correct attitude, this need not feel like a great burden. You may be one of those for whom thrift is a pleasure and an entertainment. A steady routine of work can keep you on track, and if you so choose, you can derive deep satisfaction by leaving a legacy of tangible achievement.

The Challenges You Will Meet

Everyone is born with special lessons to be learned. Again, your full birth date has inherent in it two Minor Challenges that are usually presented to you earlier in life, and a Major Challenge that is lifelong but which you will probably get to master only later in life.

Challenges may at first present themselves to you as external obstacles to your progress, but they arise from the deficiencies that you are born with, parts that are lacking or underdeveloped. Once you can determine exactly what the weak link is, you can make a conscious effort to strengthen that trait within yourself. This takes willpower and may sometimes feel as if you are going against the grain, but it pays off abundantly in terms of progress and success in life. As you tackle each challenge, your fears are pushed back, your scope enlarges, and you feel more comfortable in the world.

Your First Minor Challenge number is 7.

The First Minor Challenge usually crops up early in life. When its number is 7, you may feel very much alone and cut off from your peers. So much of your energy may be turned inward that there is none available in your conscious life and you may feel quite depressed. To feel more comfortable and connected, you must learn to direct your energies outward and to express your own feelings and ideas to others. Getting a good education will help you develop your analytical powers and put this 7 vibration to good use. When you overcome your reserve and feel more at home in the outside world, you will find that others have much to gain from your deep thought and rich inner life.

Your Second Minor Challenge number is 5.

The Second Minor Challenge is about aspects of your character that you need to work on during your Second Life Cycle, from about ages 35 to 62. With a Challenge of 5, you must learn not to get hung up with an adolescent desire for freedom at any price. During these middle years, life may demand that you settle down. Your body may rebel when you practice excesses of any type. Your task is to keep your balance while you stay in motion, and to learn just a bit of control over where you go. If you can learn moderation, your tolerance for change will keep you young and zestful for a very long time.

Your Major Challenge number is 2.

You face your Major Challenge throughout life. Most likely, however, you will find yourself needing to do the most work on it during your Third Life Cycle, after the lesser challenges have been met. With a Challenge number of 2, the thing to master is cooperating with others without either leaning on them or trying to dominate the situation. Balance is the watchword here. Also, when you find yourself hurt or slighted, you will be much happier when you learn not to take it personally.

Your Best Activities for the Year

Your Personal Year number combines your birth month and day with the current year. Personal Year numbers go in a recurring nine-year cycle of development. Each time you go around the cycle you have a chance to do things with added wisdom and skill. Keeping your activities in tune with your current year vibration can make your existence more harmonious and keep your unfoldment upon its intended track.

Some numerologists believe that the new personal year number begins on January 1st of the new year. Others believe that it doesn't change until your birthday on that year, so that up until your birthday you would be using the personal year number for the preceding calendar year.

Your Personal Year number beginning on Jan 1 2016 is 18/9

In a 9 Personal Year, the cycle of Personal Years comes to an end. This is a year to harvest the remaining crop before it rots, time to tie up all the old cycle's loose ends. So clear the decks and weed the garden. Whatever you have put off, you need to finish it now. Next year you'll be starting a new cycle, and you don't want the detritus of the old cycle to impede your progress. Like the 5 Personal Year, this is a pivotal time, one that is appropriate for change. Now you can reinvent yourself, lose weight, toss out old stuff, and get rid of old habits. As people and things fall away because they are no longer appropriate, you may experience this as a year of loss. Say a graceful good-bye, and open yourself to the new cycle to come.

Your Personal Year number beginning on Jan 1 2017 is 10/1

A 1 Personal Year begins a new cycle. This is a time to make a fresh start, a time to plant seeds that will mature in the next nine years. In this opening phase of a new cycle you should make a special effort to maintain your independence and individuality, make your own decisions, and rely on your own abilities and instincts. Stay at the forefront, and do not take a back seat to anyone. This is the year to focus on your ideas, your needs, and the fulfillment of your dreams. Once you get your own thing going, you will be better able to relate to another person in the next stage of the cycle. So for now, exercise your own creative powers as fully as possible, and use all that fresh new energy to plunge ahead into new areas that you can develop more fully later. In all things this, year, Initiate.

Where Do We Go from Here?

If this report has aroused your curiosity and you want to learn more, you may find that exploring your numbers with a deck of Tarot cards is an excellent means for further self- reflection.

Suppose that your birth date were August 19, 1962. The Tarot trump that you would look at for the month would be 8 (Strength, or in some decks, Justice). For the day, you would look at 19 (the Sun), $1+9=10$ (the Wheel of Fortune), and, reducing it even further, $1+0=1$ (the Magician). For the year, you would look at $1+9+6+2=18$ (the Moon), and possibly also $1+8=9$ (the Hermit).

These cards would have something to say about you and how you express these traits as you follow your destiny. Our example birth date would have the Sun in Leo, and trump 19, the Sun, would reinforce the Leo symbolism. You could see that the person is a hard worker (8) with a sunny disposition (19) who is aware of the changes in fortune that life can bring (10). Extremely creative (1), he is also a sensitive, caring person who is tuned in to other people's feelings (18).

It is instructive to buy a Tarot deck, put one of your cards up for a few days, and mull over the symbolism. Remember that there are no truly negative numbers or cards. All participate in the experiences of the soul as it passes through life.

Even trump 15, the Devil, has its place. Everyone has traits that create stumbling blocks or weaknesses. When we work to overcome these we achieve maturity and become more sympathetic to the weaknesses that we see in others. This may be an important focus for a soul with the number 15 prominent.

Also, trump 13, the so-called Death card, is often misunderstood. Remember that in the cycle of seasons the leaves fall and winter comes, but this death is only the precursor of the life that bursts forth in the spring. Life is not all white light and bubbles. There are dark clouds of pain and frustration as well. It's all part of the cycle.

Whatever you find your numbers to be, remember that nobody has it all down pat. We all have plenty to learn. We do have a choice, however. We can, if we wish, fight against our destiny or try to ignore it. Or we can, as the great psychoanalyst C.G. Jung put it, "do willingly what we must do by necessity." Viewing ourselves through the lens of studies such as numerology, the Tarot and astrology, we gain a clearer picture of what our own necessity is, and can then travel more consciously on our life's intended path.
